

MILLER, Jack, Sioux City
Republican
32nd Senatorial District—Woodbury
County

Born June 6, 1916, Chicago, Illinois. Moved to Sioux City with parents in 1932; also resided in Bedford. Candidate for Lieut. Governor, 1958 Republican primary. Lawyer, specializing in taxation, and farm tax writer for numerous farm journals, including Wallace's Farmer, Farm Bureau Spokesman, Nation's Agriculture, Farm Quarterly, Aberdeen Angus Journal, etc. Former Attorney, Office of Chief Counsel, Internal Revenue Service, Washington, D. C., and past chairman, Committee on Tax Problems of Farmers, American Bar Association. A.B., Creighton University; LL.B., Columbia University; post-graduate S. U. I. College of Law. World War II Air Force veteran, service in China-Burma-India theater and faculty U. S. Army Command and General Staff College, Ft. Leavenworth, Kansas. Colonel U. S. Air Force Reserve. Married, four children, and member of Catholic church, Rotary, V.F.W., American Legion, Farm Bureau, Moose, Eagles, and Izaak Walton League. In House 56th G. A.; Senate 57th and 58th G. A.

MILLER, Jack, Sioux City
Republican
32nd Senatorial District—Woodbury
County

Born June 6, 1916, Chicago. Grandfather, Fred Miller, a native Iowan from Arlington. Moved to Sioux City with parents in 1932. Lawyer, specializing in taxation. Former attorney, Office of Chief Counsel, Internal Revenue Service, Washington, D. C. One-time member of faculties of Notre Dame University law school and George Washington University department of business administration. Author of numerous articles on taxation, particularly relating to tax problems of farmers. Graduate of Creighton University (A.B.) and Law School of Columbia University. Colonel in U. S. Air Force Reserve and World War II veteran, service China-India-Burma theater, and faculty of U. S. Army Command and General Staff College, Ft. Leavenworth, Kans. Member Rotary, V. F. W., Chamber of Commerce, Farm Bureau, Izaak Walton League. Married and four children. First term in Senate; in House 56th G. A.

MILLER, Jack, Sioux City
Woodbury County
Democrat

Born June 6, 1916, Chicago, Illinois. Grandfather, Fred Miller, a native Iowan from Arlington. Moved to Sioux City with parents in 1932. Lawyer, specializing in taxation. Former attorney, office of chief counsel, Internal Revenue Service, Washington, D. C., and past chairman, committee on tax problems of farmers, American Bar Association. Graduate of Creighton University (A.B.) and Columbia University (LL.B.), with postgraduate work at State University of Iowa college of law. One-time member of faculties of Notre Dame University law school and George Washington University department of business administration. Colonel in U. S. Air Force Reserve and World War II veteran, service including air staff in Washington, China-India-Burma theater, and faculty of U. S. Army Command and General Staff college, Fort Leavenworth, Kansas. Member of Rotary, Moose, Legion, V.F.W., Chamber of Commerce, Izaak Walton League, Red Cross disaster committee, and county polio board. Married and four children. Serving first term.